

Just Healthy Families

TASMANIA LEGAL AID +
WOMEN'S LEGAL SERVICE TASMANIA

A Pilot Tasmanian Health Justice Partnership
Quarterly Report | Q3 Jul–Sept 2022

Evaluation Partners

A collaboration between Women's Legal Service Tasmania, Tasmania Legal Aid and a range of Tasmanian health and social service partners

Project Data to Date

- 205 Total number of people who receive professional development training related to the HJP
- 908 Total number of clients and family members that benefit from consultations with a HJP lawyer
- 659 Total number of people that benefit from a secondary consultation with a HJP lawyer

3
Steering Committee:
26 July, 30 August
& 27 September

1
HJP training
module developed

Contact
HJP lawyers
lawyers@
justhealthyfamilies.
org.au
1800 874 986

- North West
- 1 East Devonport Child and Family Learning Centre
  - 2 Burnie Child and Family Learning Centre
  - 3 Queenstown Child and Family Learning Centre

- North
- 4 Ravenswood Child & Family Learning Centre
  - 5 George Town Child & Family Learning Centre
  - 6 Break O'Day Child & Family Learning Centre, St Helens
  - 7 Beaconsfield Child and Family Learning Centre

- South
- 8 ptunarra Child & Family Learning Centre, New Norfolk
  - 9 tagari lia Child & Family Learning Centre, Bridgewater
  - 10 wayraparattee Child & Family Learning Centre, Geeveston
  - 11 Child & Family Learning Centre Clarence Plains
  - 12 Child & Family Learning Centre Chigwell
  - 13 Hobart Women's Shelter

Training Locations in Q3

During Q3 the training module was revised and discussed with partners and training will resume in Q4.

JHF Tasks	Status
Tasmanian Health Justice Partnership Steering Committee established and Terms of Reference agreed	Completed
Tasmanian Health Justice Partnership Steering Committee meetings, including learning sessions, held monthly	Steering Committee Meetings held in July, August and September 2022
Establish Project Advisory Group	Completed
Project Advisory Group meeting to take place twice a year	First Advisory Group Meeting held on 12 April 2022
Develop framework for project evaluation including evaluation modalities, evaluation milestones, communication and engagement strategy to attract on-going funding	In its September meeting, the Steering Committee was advised that ethics approval granted for one evaluation methodology and is being considered for the second methodology.
2 x family violence specialist lawyers recruited (one in North, one in South), including: job description finalised, positions advertised, selection panel formed and contracts awarded by WLST and then 1 x lawyer to be seconded to TLA.	Completed.
Finalise MOUs with a minimum of 2 Health and Social Services Partners	MOUs signed with Hobart Women's Shelter, Child Health and Parenting Service and Working Together Agreement signed with Child and Family Learning Centres.
Finalise sites for co-located service centres with a minimum of 11 sites across Tasmania (6 in South, 3 in North, 2 in North West) with lawyers spending a minimum of .5 days per week at each site over the 11 sites (amendment due to travel)	Initial 14 sites agreed with partners and highlighted in map on preceding page and will be reviewed later in 2022.
Develop modules for professional training (on how to recognise family violence and the tools to respond from a health and justice perspective), to be delivered to health and social services staff in Health Justice Partnership partner institutions across Tasmania	One Training module revised and discussed with health and social service partners.
Provide legal advice in-place at the partner sites and provide information and referral services that benefit, (including dependants), a minimum of 4 000 people in collaboration with the Health and Social Services Partners	Quarter 3 and Project To Date Data on preceding page.
Work with a range of training partners to create professional development remaining for students of nursing, pharmacy, midwifery, law, medicine, social work and finance to recognise and respond to family violence from both a health and justice dimension	Training module developed with inputs from GP Training Tasmania, Emergency Medicine Education and Training Tasmania and discussed with three Just Healthy Families MOU partners.
8 Quarterly bulletins produced throughout project and provided to all stakeholders to include information on: services delivered, training delivered, case studies, key evaluation measures, achievements and challenges	Q1, Q2 and Q3 2022 Quarterly bulletin produced.
Monthly Program Evaluation Reflections produced and distributed to Health Justice Partners	Monthly Program Reflections commenced in Q2.